have placed it in a class by itself.
Nothing in all the market at $360 compares with it. Properly it is named the Old Home Piano.
It is made by expert workmen.
Vose men now of the second and third generation direct its manufacture. These men, some grandsons, were schooled by James W. Vose, the founder. So the Vose could be nothing less than the wonderful piano it is.

714 Kansas Ave.Careless Use of Soap Spoils the HairSoap should be used very carefully.
If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali.
This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulled coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.One or two spoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.You can get mulled coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of Those Ugly Spots.There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription ointment—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it at night, and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advertisement.

HAS BRYAN FEVER

Peerless Leader's Home State Strenuously Pacific.Engulfed in Prosperity, So Are Content With War.

T. R. FAVOR AMONG MASSES

Hitchcock Depends on Pacifists for Re-Election.Republicans Prefer Hughes or Fairbanks to the Colonel.BY WILLIS J. ABBOT.
Omaha, Neb., May 19.—Nebraska basks in sunny prosperity and content.
The price of cattle and hogs, of corn and wheat fills the Nebraska mind to the entire exclusion of any thought from the Mexican situation, the yellow peril, or the menace that may follow the end of the European war.
Nine-tenths of the Nebraskans are quite content for the war to continue while it keeps up the demand for their farm products. They greatly regret the slaughter of Americans in Mexico, but are inclined to blame the victims for having been there at all. Most emphatically are they against sending American soldiers down there to avenge the murders already committed, and to give assurance that none shall be committed in future.Pacific But Anti-Bryan.
Nebraska is strenuously pacifist.
It has just savagely repudiated Bryan by defeating him as a candidate for delegate to St. Louis, but it clings to the shallow Bryan ideas."We don't want to go to war," is the patriotic cry of those to whom you talk of the need of preparedness.
Apparently they do not understand that war may come to us, that however great our desire for peace, if we present to the impoverished nations of Europe the spectacle of a nation su-perlatively rich and utterly unprotected, we must expect piratical raids upon our territory.The Nebraska farmer's wife approves the "I Did Not Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier." She never stops to think that whether raised to be a soldier or not, he will be made a soldier should the nation be attacked, and sent against well armed and disciplined men, himself untrained, ill equipped, a helpless victim of misplaced confidence.Nebraska sees no lesson in the fate of Belgium.Instructed for Cummins.
Such was the substance of the explanation given me by a member of the Nebraska delegation to Chicago, for the lack of Roosevelt sentiment in this state. He is himself a supporter of Roosevelt, though instructed for Cummins, and estimates the number of Roosevelt votes on the delegation when it shall meet from his instructions as seven, but he insists that the public sentiment in the state is as described, and that Henry Ford would probably get more votes than any probable Republican nominee.In this estimate of the Nebraska temper, the editors of the three Omaha dailies coincide. Mr. Roosevelt got the Bee finds in it a reason for his strenuous effort to hold the Nebraska delegation for Hughes, rather than Roosevelt, for second choice.Mr. Newbranch of the World-Herald, Senator Hitchcock's paper, discerns in this profound anti-war sentiment, reason to hope that Wilson may carry the state, despite the great hostility of the German electorate to him.Hitchcock a Neutral.
It is noteworthy that Senator Hitchcock, who is up for re-election, despite the earnest effort of Bryan to defeat him, is picked by wise observers here as a winner, despite the ebb of Democratic strength in the state.In the United States senate the senator has stood for real neutrality, and kept himself clear from any identification with the pro-British policy of the administration. He will receive the support of the foes of militarism in the state, as well as the support of those of foreign birth or parentage who resent the apparent subservience of Wilson's administration to one of the belligerents alone.It is quite generally believed that Wilson's defeat and the election of Hitchcock will occur.T. R. Sentiment Unorganized.
There is Roosevelt sentiment among the masses, but is not general, is unorganized and is little reflected by the politicians. But, in my judgment, the Hughes sentiment is given more voice by the politicians than his strength among the people warrant. It is obviously the expedient adopted here, as in other states, by the old line politicians to defeat Roosevelt. The men who are preaching Hughes most loudly are not at heart for him. They would rather have a candidate more thoroughly identified with the organization. There is, indeed, a well defined suspicion that an understanding exists by which the Hughes vote shall be thrown to Fairbanks in the event the justice proves unavailable. I have heard this rumor in other states, as well.Electricians Meet at Wichita.
Wichita, Kan., May 19.—Electrical contractors from many cities of Kansas were here today for the annual meeting of the Kansas Electrical Contractor's association. The various phases of electrical work were discussed at the meetings today. Tonight a banquet will be given for the visitors.New York, May 19.—A piece of

EDITORIAL

IF ever a man had need of that famous "Do it now" slogan, it's right now if he intends to buy new Spring clothing. The woolen market is in a critical condition, prices seem to be rising to unheard of limits—those prices haven't affected our prices to you as yet—but it seems inevitable. Plenty of fine clothes here now—usual big values here now —we've prepared for this emergency with our patron's interest in view, but we can't promise any long continuance of the condition. So, as we said, if you're going to buy clothes and want to save money, "Do it now," and "Do it here tomorrow!"For Graduation—
